This is election day in Ohio, and the returns are looked for with much interest.

THOMAS WILLIAMS, who guided a raiding party against the illicit distillers in Lawrence county, Ky., is reported to have been murdered.

A WILKESBARRE dispatch says the miners of the Riverside Coal Company have accepted a ten per cent. advance, and all the collieries of that company are now at work.

EDITH C. BENTLY, aged 14 years, has disappeared from her home at Paterson, N. J., and her parents think she has run away to join some theatrical company.

THE EASTERN WAR news is so conflicting that it is impossible to tell the actual situation of affairs. It seems probable by comparison of the reports from each side that the Turks are so far, having the best of the Russians.

THE rain of Thursday last did great damage in many parts of the country. No less than six railroad accidents are reported caused by the washing out of the tracks and quite a number were killed and wounded.

A company of printers from Constantinople have joined the Turkish army. They ought to be good at a — at the enemy in the ; ized region of Bulgaria.—N. Y. Com. Adv.

Bank Suspension in Allegheny.

PITTSBURGH, October 3.—The following notice is posted on the doors of the Allegheny savings bank: "The directors of the Allegheny savings bank being unable to convert its assets into money immediately have deemed it proper to suspend payment."

About this time last year a run was made on the bank, but the officers met all demands so promptly that the run ceased. It is ascertained that at the time of the run last year the deposits aggregated $1,322,000, but since that time they have been steadily reduced and do not now exceed $591,000, of which amount about $100,000 belong to the directors and stockholders.

An Ohio Tragedy.

A tragedy enacted at Zanesville, Ohio, on Tuesday of last week, creates intense excitement in that place. Abner James was an undertaker in Zanesville, his office being on Ninth street. He and his wife did not live pleasantly together, although they had been married but fourteen months.

in the left hand of the wife, held as in a vise, was a revolver, with which it is supposed the dreadful deed was done.—How they came to their death is, in a measure, a mystery, as no one saw the fearful tragedy enacted.

A Sympathizing Judge.

When Miss Amelia Donnersehley claimed two hundred dollars from faithless Augustus Berner for breach of promise, the gentleman justified his conduct on the plea that after living under the same roof with the young lady and her mamma for eight months, he found it so impossible to live comfortably with the one, that he was compelled to cry off with the other.

"Pay $200," was the prompt reply. Said the judge: "Young man let me shake hands with you. There was a time in my life when I was in the same situation as you are in now. Had I possessed your firmness, I should have been spared twenty-five years of trouble."

A Mother and Child Terribly Stung.

The Sedalia (Mo.) Democrat tells the following: Mrs. Henry Smith living eight miles southwest from this city, went into the yard, accompanied by her little daughter, a child 7 years of age, to get some honey.

In an instant she and the child were literally covered with a swarm of insects, which stung them on the face, neck and arms, and indeed nearly all over the body. Frightened and crazed with pain they started to run, but they were blinded by the bees, and it was ten minutes before they succeeded to get into the house and free from the swarm.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 3rd, 1877. October, gay October, is here with its rich, sweet days—the balmy days in all the year for Washingtonians.

There is a beautiful spirit breathing now its mellow richness on the clustered trees, and, from a beaker full of clustered dyes, pouring new glory on the Autumn woods.

Yesterday a week ago, the Capital was in an uproar over the burning Patent Office. It was a fearful time and great damage was done. Nearly 80,000 models were burned, and the building shockingly injured.

the Capitol, Post Office, War Department, nor Navy Department are wholly fire-proof and all of these buildings are literally crammed full of papers and other combustible material. The Cabinet has discussed the matter somewhat during the past week and the subject will be presented for the consideration of Congress during the coming session.

The extra session is nearly upon us "in all its fury" and the Capital is girding itself up for the battle. The President will not send in his annual message, but will transmit the reasons why the extra session was called and submit the estimates of the War Department of the amount necessary for the army appropriation.

The Indians take a pleasure excursion to Mt. Vernon to-day. ADAMS.

Miscellaneous News Items.

There is a locality in Bloomington, Ill., called Pone Hollow, in which, within the last six months, there have been four suicides, one murder, two attempted murders and three deaths by railroad accidents.

A difficulty exists between the Lost Creek and the Millington, Juniata county, Presbyterian congregations, and the former presents complaints before the Common Pleas Court, in a bill in equity.

The wife of Joseph Simon, of St. Louis, has applied for a divorce because her husband made her dine daily on soup made from a ten-cent shin bone and skimmed out all the meat himself.

COLUMBUS, Miss., September 27.—Nat. Pierce, who was implicated in killing Story and Kilpatrick, in Pickens county, Alabama, last August, was taken from the Carrollton, Alabama, jail last night by about twenty masked men and hanged.

Mrs. Powers, a farmer's wife, living near Bellevue, Mich., mixed Paris green with water in a teacup, drank the mixture, handed the cup to her husband, and lay down to die, and did it a day or two afterward.

A young lady who was crossing a railroad bridge located between Ann Arbor and Cornwells, Mich., fell off, and probably would have sustained serious if not fatal injuries, if she had not caught by the bustle and hung herself upon a spike.

Manchester, N. H., has a scandal in the discovery that the wife of a member of one of the largest dry goods firms has been stealing heavily from the store for two years back.

A Chinaman recently had his leg crushed by a train near Moscow, Sonoma county, California. To save his life amputation was peremptorily refused by his friends, who said: "Chinaman no likee stump leg."

An Amherst grocer offered a young school teacher a bushel of potatoes free if she would wheel them home at an hour when most of the students were likely to be in the streets.

There was a queer match for $200 between a man and a horse at Lynn recently. J. E. Beeson was to walk five miles backward while the horse walked eight miles backward, and the horse was withdrawn after two miles, the man having walked them in 15 hours and 14 1/2 minutes.

NEWARK, N. J., October 2.—Fully twenty thousand people—some estimated the number as high as thirty thousand—turned out in Newark last evening to greet General McClellan on his way to New Institute hall, where his reception and ratification took place.

A passenger train over the Ogdensburg railroad from Fabyans collided with the morning freight from Portland at Lake Sebago, Me., last week, smashing both engines, the baggage car and the new drawing-room car.

READING, October 3.—On the opening of the court Samuel Humphreys, indicted for burning the Lebanon Valley bridge, who had pleaded guilty in the morning, turned state's evidence, confessing that he held a lamp while a man named Smith sustained kindling wood, thrown from the upper part of the bridge by accomplices, with coal oil and set fire to it through which the bridge was burned.

A workingmen's demonstration occurred at Wilkesbarre on Monday of last week, the occasion being the release from prison, under bail, of Bovey and Harrison, leaders of the mob during the recent riots, who have been imprisoned at Pittsburgh.

The Hanover Herald says: "Mr. J. Cauffman, miller at Sprinkle's mill, near Graybill's station, on the 'Short Line' R. R., while under the treatment of Dr. J. Wise for tape worm, on Sunday morning, passed what is known as a teanin lata, or broad tape worm, measuring 50 feet long, and one inch broad at its widest parts."

While passing Painesville, Ohio, on Monday last week, a westward bound oil train on the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad broke into sections unknown to the engineer, who halted as usual at the crossing of the Painesville and Youngstown Railroad.

PHOENIXVILLE, October 5.—Last night a terrible accident occurred on the Pickering Valley branch of the Reading R. R., about two miles West of this place, to the Pennypacker excursion train, killing seven persons and injuring about 43. The rains had washed away the track, and the train was carried down a high embankment.

LAMBERTVILLE, N. J., October 4.—The south bound Oswego and Philadelphia express on the Belvidere division of the Pennsylvania railroad, ran into a washed out culvert a short distance below Milford, New Jersey, this evening, causing a complete wreck of the train and it is feared some loss of life.

The storm caused a rapid rise in the creeks—the one at Milford swelling in the course of an hour from a very small creek to a depth of twenty-five or thirty feet.

The darkness and confusion render it impossible to get any particulars now. The engineer, Jonathan Thornton, and the conductor, Thomas C. Reading, have not yet been found.
